

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. My philosophy is if I want to purchase any type of product, I will search them out. I do not need sales people calling me at home and disturbing my family at all hours of the day. Since adding my family's name to the list, the phone calls have stopped and we wish to keep it that way.